SUNDAY READING.

From the Lectures of the A.·. & A.·. Scottish Rite.

XXXVIII.

To reconcile Faith with Reason, and to be actuated and exalted by Faith, are the great needs of the Human Soul. It is by Faith, and not by Reason, that nations effect great conquests and achievements, and that society is saved from corruption and putrefaction. Want of Faith is the epidemic of the present century. The Spirit of Intellect, the High-

[illegible] where on the earth's surface, that thus draws round and holds fast the needle; and then by analogy we reason that this agent will produce other effects, by means of the same force; and we can divine what some, perhaps many, of those effects will be.

Faith and Reason are subject to the universal law of Equilibrium. Contrary in their natures, they are not hostile to each other; and the man or people that acts on the theory that they are so, by ignoring either, treads the downward path to perdition. The French revolution ended in despotism, as it began in bloodshed and ghoul into anarchy, because it repudiated Faith, and adored Reason alone. The Church of Rome disowned Reason, and enthroned a blind Faith, which at once degenerated into imbecile credulity; and it is known to says the same book, "is male, and his Rigor, Justice or Severity is female. These constitute the Balance, and they are in equilibrium; because the Supreme Wisdom, resident in the Very, Unmanifested Deity, holds the beam." And from these, thus in equilibrium, results the perfect and eternal Beauty or Harmony, which Reason teaches us must be the law of the Universe, and therefore the essence of the wholeness of the Divine Attributes; and this is symbolized in Masonry by the two columns, connected by the arch, at whose summit is the key-stone of the Mythical Temple of Solomon.

COMMUNICATED.

THE SUFFERING FREEDMEN.

It would appear that something must be done for the freedmen of the South, and that speedily, or they will die in great numbers of famine and pestilence the Last year thousands were in a state of destitution in February and March. This year a large number are starving in December and January. There is no agricultural employment in the South which will at present prices do more than give negro families a current support during the season of cultivation. When the crop is made and harvested, and labor no longer required, the negro, with his wife and children, has no means of support until spring. Even when the season of planting returns, there is a want of food in the country, and laborers cannot be fed. Cotton can no longer be successfully cultivated, and other crops requiring a smaller amount of labor must be substituted during the coming year, necessarily throwing a large number of negroes out of employment, and making their condition next year even worse than the present. Some may be supported for several months, by working on the levees at the expense of Government, as proposed by Gen. Gillem, but this will be confined to comparatively few, and even to them the relief will be only temporary. The amount required in addition to relieve the impending distress must be estimated in millions; and this must inevitably be repeated next year, and every year, more or less, for a long while.

It should now be considered whether the proper remedy is not emigration, and whether this will not be the least expensive, and best for the negroes. Besides Liberia, which is too remote, there are the West India Islands, and all the coasts of the Isthmus and of South America, within the tropics close at hand, affording abundant room, and a soil and clime the perfect and eternal Beauty or Harmony, which Reason teaches us must be the law of the Universe, and therefore the essence of the wholeness of the Divine Attributes; and this is symbolized in Masonry by the two columns, connected by the arch, at whose summit is the key-stone of the Mythical Temple of Solomon.

Congress is now imperatively called upon to make such provision for the "Wards of the Nation," as will save them from famine and pestilence, which are inseparable calamities. Twenty million dollars will be required for food and clothing during the Winter and Spring, and when Summer comes supplies cannot be withheld, for not more than one tenth of the negro population can then be employed and supported by the white people for the cultivation of crops; and next year we shall hear of want and starvation in November and December. Besides, it must be considered that feeding and clothing negroes without requiring labor in return is pauperizing them. If we find them indolent now, what will they be after one or more years subsistence upon government bounty? The evil increases with time, and the only certain remedy is dispersion; sending a portion of them to tropical regions where we know they can live without the aid of white men, and a portion into parts of the country where their labor can be made available to white men, and where their employers are interested in their support and protection.

AN IMPORTANT CHANCERY SUIT DECIDED.

From the Louisville Courier, 31st ult.]

In 1861, while the Confederate army was at Bowling Green, the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company instituted a suit, accompanied by an affidavit by its President, Mr. Guthrie, that Gen. Buckner had destroyed the splendid bridge which spanned Green river, and alleged that he being in the rebel army his property was subject to attachment to cover the damage. Under the shameful laws enacted by the Legislature in 1861 the attachments were levied upon all his estate in Kentucky, consisting of an elegant residence, three stories high, with seventy-nine feet front of Sixth street and running through the entire square with equal front on Center street, a house and two lots in Elizabethtown; a farm of some hundreds of acres, being his ancestral home, in Hart county; and his library and furniture, and a large amount of other personal property. Without any process being served upon him a verdict was obtained, under the statutes then existing, of more than sixty thousand dollars. The residence and the farm were sold by the Marshal, and purchased by the railroad company, who paid for it by giving Gen. Buckner a credit on their judgment. The personal property was also sold, and the proceeds paid to the railroad. By his parole, Gen. Buckner, after the war, was not permitted to return to Kentucky, but about six months ago, by attorney, he filed a pleading in the name of a petition and answer, asking to be made a party to the suit, and alleging that he did not destroy the bridge, but had he done so, he would be justified by the laws of war. A re trial was ordered. Various preliminary questions were decided against him. The objections were met by additional preparation. After two arguments the case was submitted for final judgment, but before the chancellor had given his opinion the railroad company agreed to surrender to Gen. Buckner his property, which they held, and on yesterday Col. R. W. Woolley, for Gen. Buckner, took possession of the Louisville estate, and is authorized to enter upon the Hart county property. It was also agreed that the question of rents and profits due to Gen. Buckner, and some moneys expended by the railroad company in removing liens and improvements, should be referred for adjustment to the commissioner of the court, to report the accounts between the parties, and Gen. Buckner agreed not to institute a subsequent suit for damages because of the attachment.

There are many friends of that distinguished gentleman who will rejoice to learn that he has recovered his estate, and every lover of good government will rejoice that not only have the spoliations under the shameful legislation of 1861 ceased in Kentucky, but that law and justice are now administered not only to those at home, but to exiles away. The Hon. James Speed was counsel for the railroad, and Col. E. S. Worthington, Judge Brown and R. W. Woolly for General Buckner.

Commercial College.

A NIGHT SESSION, IN CONNECTION with this College, is now inaugurated. As a temporary arrangement the class meets in the SCHWEE-TERIN PUBLISHING HOUSE, No. 37 SOUTH COURT STREET.

The course of instruction is eminently practical as well as scientific, embracing everything necessary to fit young men for the efficient discharge of the duties of an Accountant and Book-keeper in a merchant's office. The student goes through practicly the same routine of journalizing, posting into his ledger, and closing his books, and then making out his balance sheet, as he would in a real business. This process is renewed an indefinite number of times, till he becomes familiar with those operations and an expert in performing them, as if he had served a long apprenticeship in the counting House.

TERMS—For Night Session (in advance) one month, $8; three months, $20.

LOYALTY to the Union of the STATES: FIDELITY to the Constitution in its true extent and meaning: Obedience to and maintenance of all law, State and National, constitutionally enacted.

RESISTANCE to Tyranny, Usurpation and Oppression, of one man or many; and to all encroachments upon the rights of freemen or of States, or upon the just and Constitutional prerogatives of any Department of the State or National Governments.

NO ESTABLISHMENTS of Military despotisms, no enthroning of martial law, no suspension of the writ of Habeas Corpus, no slaying of citizens by Military commission, no interference with the Courts, no lettres de cachet, in time of peace.

NO STANDING ARMIES of States in time of peace.

RESTORATION of disfranchised citizens to all rights and privileges of which they have been dissezied; no prosecutions or disqualifications for political opinions; for the PAST, oblivion of offences; for the PRESENT and FUTURE, UNION, PEACE, LAW and ORDER.

PERPETUAL ASSURANCE to all freemen of the African race, of all the CIVIL rights of freemen.

NO REPUDIATION, by State or Nation, of any honest and lawful debt.

NO REVIVAL of old party differences; but a Union of all Conservative men, of all former parties, who revere the Constitution, to restore the old land-marks of the Government.

NO LEGISLATION to plunder one portion of the country for the profit or another portion.

WHATEVER IS JUST; whatever is RIGHT; whatever is of GOOD REPUTE, and worthy of the descendants of English freemen.

A VICTORY WELL WON AND WORTH THE WINNING.

Against all manner of adverse influences, to which, in the moment of victory, it would be ungenerous to more than allude, the honest and sober and patriotic people of Memphis have won a great victory. After a long dark night of discouragement and depression, the dawn of day begins to purple the East, and through the gloomy clouds of the future the rays of hope begin to gleam. We saw the people of Memphis during the day of the election, thoughtful, resolute, quiet, every man intent upon the performance of a holy duty, all evidently determined to rescue the city from ruin, and deaf to the croaking vaticinations of those who prognosticated defeat, and made it their business to dispirit voters by preaching to them that LEETWICH could not be elected, and that to save us from the rule of BEECHER and his negro henchmen and parasites it was indispensable to vote for FITCH. Hundreds of true men cast their votes for LEETWICH, believing that he would be defeated. Without any of the ordinary enginery of political contests, without money or music, processions, transparencies or carriages, without any humbug or clap-trap, the PEOPLE asserted the right of white men to rule this country, and proclaimed their determination to be free.

Property in Memphis is worth twenty per cent. more to-day than it was on the last day of the old year 1867. A new feeling of security pervades the whole city. It has been worth a whole year of any ordinary life-time, to see for one day the glad and hopeful faces of the long discouraged and dispirited men of Memphis. Our men are younger and every our women lovelier than ever. Every one seems glad, buoyant, exultant. Hope, trust, indulgence and forbearance have returned among us from their exile of many days, and are once more become our familiar household Gods.

This victory is a great one, and of permanent value, because it is owing to a hearty and wholesome union of the white men of the city, animated by no greed for office, no party passion, no sordid or ignoble motives, but by pure and unadulterated patriotism. There was no endeavour to procure the votes of negroes. They were distinctly informed that JOHN W. LEETWICH represented the unalterable determination of the white men of the city, that to the hands of white men alone the powers of government and administration should be entrusted. Men who had before acted with the Radical party, because they saw no choice between two parties, each willing to accept the negro as a political equal, now voted for the Conservative candidate, because we openly and boldly repudiated negro suffrage. Many decent and intelligent negroes, with tickets openly displayed, disgusted with the tomfoolery of the Loyal Leagues, and knowing that those who had known them longest were their truest friends, be remembered and rewarded for it. The victory was emphatically a victory of the PEOPLE, for which we ought devoutly to thank and magnify God, who holds the nations in the hollow of his hand.

Let us rejoice with exceeding great joy, as men who have made their escape from the Valley of the Shadow of Death, and once more breathe the airs of freedom under the skies that smiled upon their cradles, when their fathers were free. But let us also remember that this victory is but a beginning, and that to reap its fruits we must still wear our armour and keep our legions well together and in hand. Eternal vigilance, union, concert of action, plans wisely formed and resolutely carried into effect are necessary. There must be an Executive Committee organized for West Tennessee. If the Central Committee at Nashville has sunken into decrepitude, another must be constituted. A Creed must be promulgated to which all Conservatives once Whigs and Democrats, and all Union men who are disgusted and ashamed because of negro-suffrage and equality, can agree. Such a creed can be framed, which will win the assent and secure the support of thousands of white men in East Tennessee.

Moreover, we must restore harmony among all Conservative white men. There is no man living who has not often made grave mistakes: and the religion that we profess teaches us to judge charitably and generously of the motives of all men. It was not strange that many should think that no Conservative could be elected, and that the nominee of the Loyal Leagues could only be defeated by voting for FITCH. We are all erring, fickle and vacillating, easily led astray, and often doing what our sober judgment condemns, and what we repent of and are ashamed of afterwards. Every one of us has some fault, and daily does some wrongful act, which we hope God and our fellows will forgive; and yet we are not wholly unworthy because our motives are sometimes none of the noblest, and our selfish interests become our masters and tyrants.

Let us open our arms to those who voted against the Conservative nominee, no matter from what motive. We should not inquire as to that. Let what has been so enacted be as if it had not been done; but let us have it distinctly understood that whosoever, being a Conservative, shall hereafter vote for a Radical, no matter what may be his excuse, shall be marked forever afterwards as faithless and false, and as one who did all in his power to insure success to the locusts of Radicalism. Let all trust them generously now; for they are sufficiently shamed, mortified and rebuked by the glorious confidence, constancy and courage of the men of the PEOPLE, whom no blandishments could lure, no fear of defeat persuade to deviate from the straight and narrow path of duty.

Thank God, adversity is chastening and strengthening the people, and they have become thoughtful and reflective. The old expedients and devices of the demagogue will no longer avail with them. They thirst only for the truth; and they will listen to and heed whomsoever speaks to them with earnestness and sincerity the calm and grave words of wisdom and of good counsel.

"Blood is thicker than water." It is a poor, paltry, contemptible, despicable wretch who will side with the negro and use him to oppress the men of his own race. He is beneath the contempt of every man of honour, and ought to be left to associate with those whom he has selected to be his fellows. The man who will deliberately endeavour to put the government of a city in the hands of negroes, with negro policemen, negro firemen and negro jurors, is a criminal to whom no mercy ought to be shown. When we look back to the last day of the dead year 1867, and see what an abyss of intolerable degradation and danger then yawned before us, we shudder like men who have not yet surely escaped a great peril, and fervently thank GOD that HE encouraged the hearts of the people and enabled them to win a great victory over the powers of darkness and evil.

No matter what men choose to call the party which seeks to preserve all that is valuable in government, stable in institutions, and for the honour and well-being of the free race to which we belong. Let it not be its purpose to revive old and obsolete issues and distinctions, nor to benefit any particular set of politicians. Let it be the party of the country, of the white race, of law and liberty, and order and subordination, with a creed catholic and liberal, on which all white men who love their country and are not recreant to their race can stand; and we shall succeed, and redeem and regenerate the country.

A DEFINITION OF JACOBINISM.

EDMUND BURK says that Jacobinism consists

"In taking the people as equal individuals, without any corporate name or description, without attention to property, without division of powers, and forming the government of delegates from a number of men so constituted; in destroying or confiscating property, and bribing the public creditors, or the poor, with the spoils, now of one part of the community, now of another, without regard to prescription or profession."

The Radical faction has only transplanted French Jacobinism to this continent, and produced a strange amalgam of it and a diseased Puritanism. The Girondins of the Republican party are hesitating whether to follow the extremists, led by that pious MARAT, WENDELL PHILLIPS, and that old malignant, STEVENS, or to rebel against their plans for revolutionizing the whole country, reducing the States to Departments, and inviting negroes into the Senate and House of Representatives. If the Jacobins should succeed at the NEXT election in electing their candidate for the Presidency, by the help of the eleven Negro-Radical Abominations that were once Commonwealths of white men, south of the Potomac, the Girondins, who all the time look one way and row another, and without whom Jacobinism would now be as powerless as a serpent with a broken spine, may prepare for the fate which overtook VERGNIAUD, BRISSOT, ROLAND and their Associates, when the Mountain became masters of France. What are the Loyal Leagues of armed negroes, but Jacobin Clubs? Is it not in them that all legislation in the Southern States is to have its birth? Is it not they who are to determine who shall be elected to office? Are they not doing that here? We had not the mob of Rome, to howl for bread and the games, and crouch to any tyrant that wore the purple, unless the negroes lately emancipated by law, but still abject slaves to their ignorance, their superstition, and all the vices and beastly instincts of their ancestors, could be invested with the rights of citizenship and of suffrage; and therefore that was done by a Congress pretending to be republican, which no tyrant, nor even Rome was ever base enough to do, in order to wreak its revenge upon revolted Provinces. Never before, in the history of the whole world, was the Government over white men placed by white men in the hands of an inferior race, sprung from the loins of dusky Africa, of ignorant and stupid blackamoors, who cannot even manage an ordinary affair of business, and are, in the scale of creation, at an immense distance below the Japanese, the Chinese, the Tartar, the Malay and the Esquimaux, and to whom increased knowledge will only be increased capacity and power for mischief. And this, it is pretended, because these creatures are "loyal," when they have not the slightest idea what the word loyalty means, are utterly incapable of being patriotic, and would without hesitation march under the standards of CESAR to extinguish the liberties of the people. Jacobinism must have them on juries, too, and in sleeping-cars with ladies. GOD save this poor moon-struck country! for omnipotence only can save it from the consequences of its own follies; and may those who are occupied in ruining it be anathema maranatha.

RECONSTRUCTION IN ALL ITS UGLINESS.

We take from the Montgomery Mail the following summary of the principal provisions of the thing called in mockery a Constitution, spawned by the mongrel crew that lately infested the Capitol of the ex-State of Alabama. The equally worthy body at Washington, called a Congress, and which is much such a Congress as SCROGS was a Chief Justice, is ready to approve it as Republican, and to admit to seats in the House and Senate such white men and negroes as those allowed to vote in Alabama may see fit to send there to represent the State:

The Constitution submitted to the people of Alabama by the Military Reconstruction Convention contains provisions which, if ratified, will accomplish the following results:

I. To permit every negro to vote, whatever his competency or incompetency, who has been in the State for six months and in the county three months.

II. To permit to vote only such white men as may have been in the State six months and in the county three months, who will swear never to change the proposed Constitution so far as it affects the question of suffrage.

III. To deprive of the privilege of voting and holding office—1st. All whites who may be disfranchised by the proposed constitutional amendment (14th Article) and by the reconstruction acts, that is to say, all who held any office, Federal or State, of the lowest grade, before the war and afterwards gave aid or sympathy to the Confederate cause. This provision, according to the registration returns, will disfranchise thirty thousand of the white men of the State.

2. All whites who shall have been convicted of treason at any time before an election. As nearly every white man of the State who applied for pardon under the $20,000 clause of the President's amnesty proclamation was compelled, by order of Judge Busteed, of the United States District Court, after his property was libelled, to plead guilty to treason in that court, it follows that this provision disfranchises every white man who applied for pardon under that clause, embracing not less than ten thousand of our best citizens.

3. All whites who have conscientious scruples about taking a test oath to the effect that they will never vote or use their influence to change the basis of suffrage, whatever may be the evil effects of the proposed system—in other words, a test oath swearing away their liberty of thought and action.

The first two of these excluding provisions take the suffrage away forcibly from the hands of forty thousand whites, and the last clause will take it away conscientiously from all but the lowest classes who care nothing for the sanctity of an oath nor the liberty of thought. In short, these disfranchising propositions of the Reconstruction Convention propose to give the State government of Alabama and the municipal government of all but six counties of the State, to negroes who have had no opportunity to prepare themselves with a knowledge of even the simplest duties and obligations of government.

Such a government the negroes have not asked for and the whites will not endure.

Such a Constitution has not been demanded by the Republican party, nor by Congress. The proscription for which it provides has been expressly repudiated at every primary meeting of negroes in Alabama. The people of the North have denounced the scheme from ocean to ocean. Will Alabama indorse it? Will the white race vote their own degradation? Will the black race vote their own destruction?

We do verily believe that if this thing had seen the light before the October elections in the Great Northern States, the Democrats would have carried New York by 150,000 majority, and Pennsylvania and Ohio by 50,000 each. It is not possible that the people of these States can consent to be accomplices in a crime so despicable and detestable. We rejoice that the work of the miscreants who caballed at Montgomery is just what it is; and that like monsters are begotten and will in due time disgust the world in Louisiana, South Carolina and Georgia. Less might not have sufficed to arouse the flaming indignation of the honest yeomanry of the North, who have yet all their innate pride of race and blood, and some love of justice and fair play, and who are not base enough to be willing to see a horde of negroes trample in the dust those who by their bravery and constancy extorted the respect of their conquerors. Blood will prove thicker than water.

We learn that a similar Constitution has been framed, and sent to Arkansas, to be adopted there; that one of its provisions is that no "rebel" shall be allowed to practice law; and that the men who are to fill all the offices of the State are selected in advance. We even have their names. Let the evil work go on. As certainly as GOD lives, the day of wrath and retribution is at hand.

All honest men would be ashamed of their kind, and Republicanism becomes as hateful as the tyranny of the worst CESARS, if it could be believed that such villainies could be successful, and that human governments could long continue in such despicable hands. Such things are the fever-dreams and lunacies of States. The man who believes that a people will long submit to such a tyranny and to rulers so execrably low and base, is a fool. Even the Tartar hordes that subjugated the millions of China, had some virtues and much manhood. The creatures who domineer over the white men of the South have none. They are the very excrements of humanity, the lees and dregs of the race, and the fit allies of those who have lately voted in Congress that the work of reconstruction is too excellent to need amendment, and shall go on unchanged. If the Democratic party cannot win on that issue, there is not soul enough in the country to serve it as salt to keep it from putrefaction.

MODESTY (?)

We clip the following item from the columns of our cotemporary, the Avalanche, of yesterday:

The Avalanche publishes this morning the letter list, furnished us by the Postmaster. It will reach as many readers as if published in any other city paper. We are not in the habit of boasting of our circulation, but feel satisfied that we are not exceeded, in that respect, by any of our cotemporaries. We are gratified that Postmaster Gist should have selected our paper, and we cordially thank him, believing at the same time that it is in accordance with the wishes of our citizens.

While we acknowledge our readiness to congratulate our neighbors upon their success in obtaining some Government patronage, we call the attention of our readers to the following letter from the Postoffice Department, which will fully explain the manner in which our contemporary was "selected." Hereafter the letter list will also appear in the columns of the APPEAL, on the same terms precisely that it now appears in the Avalanche:

Sir: Considering the small number of advertised letters delivered, and the consequent loss to the Department, the Postmaster General has ordered that the inscriptions of the List now containing the advertisement of the letter lists in newspapers be, and they are hereby modified, so as to prohibit entirely, at all postoffices, the allowance of pay for such advertising, when any publisher of a newspaper can be found willing to do the work without charge. Also that all newspaper men offering to publish without charge shall have the privilege of copying the lists simultaneously.

You are therefore directed to ascertain if any paper or papers, within the delivery of your office, are willing to do this work without charge to the Department; and if any agree to do so, report the name of such paper or papers to this office.

Very respectfully,
A. P. LEVERY,
Third Ass't P. M. General.
POSTMASTER, Memphis, Tenn.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Editors Memphis Appeal:

After a very delightful ride of half an hour from the din of city life, through lofty forests in their wintry grey garb and leafless branches, we stepped from the sumptuous coach of the Memphis and Louisville train into the broad Main street of the flourishing town of Bartlett, where everything wore the air of Christmas, except the air itself which seemed like a May day in soft vernal brightness and warmth. Main street, about half a mile in length, ascends a gentle declivity from the railroad to the Masonic Collegiate Institute situated upon a slight eminence at its summit, commanding an extensive view of the surrounding country.

There are several handsome residences on this street. Major Bartlett's fine two-storied dwelling in a grove on the right side, and next lot Squire Priddy's tasteful cottage with its splendid flower garden in front of the left. Dr. Priest's elegant establishment, and Judge Reeves, Dr. Wright's and Capt. Mercer's unique and tasteful lots and buildings, all in sight from the railroad, lend an appearance of quiet elegance to the village, rendering it exceedingly attractive to the traveler's first view. There are a few very eligible sites for residences that can be purchased at reasonable prices, and no place presents more attractions for educational purposes, on account of the remarkably no alaud refined community and the healthfulness of the locality, to the business men of Memphis within only thirty minutes' ride by rail. Their families can have all the advantages of both city and county life, without the expense of municipal taxes and high rents, and raise a superabundance of fruits and vegetables for domestic use or market.

The Masonic Collegiate Institute has just opened under the best auspices, with the most encouraging prospects, in charge of Professors Norcom and Rousseau, both accomplished Christian gentlemen, and skilful instructors of long and successful experience in the noble cause of education, and zealous members of the Masonic Fraternity, which patronizes it—there being a numerous Lodge of excellent and influential members at this place.

There are three congregations, two churches, a Masonic Hall, three stores, and the most hospitable citizens known, while the adjoining country has long been celebrated for its enterprising farmers.

During the epidemic last Fall, a large number of your most respectable citizens spent two months out here, and some are locating their families here, where every facility is offered them and the kindest welcome by the citizens. There are thousands of beautiful hillsides and sunny slopes throughout this section, remarkably adapted to the cultivation of vineyards, which are beginning to attract a very laudable degree of attention, but still need more newspaper encouragement.

A large chalybeate spring supplies inexhaustible quantities of water, within a mile, and Raleigh, already popular as a watering place, is but three milest distant.

A WOMAN in Paris informed her neighbors, who went out to work by the day, that she would take care of their children, without cost, upon condition that she could receive them at eight o'clock in the morning, and keep them till five in the afternoon. The parents readily consented; the babies were always returned promptly and in good condition, and the woman was regarded as a blessing to the community. It was discovered that this voluntary nurse received quite an income from letting the children to artists and photographers at two francs per day, as models for angels and cherubims.

There is said to be living in Cincinnati, in extreme poverty, an English woman and her daughter, descendants of the great Duke of York.

A female dentist is the last Parisian novelty.

The coal trade of Pennsylvania has never been more active than at present

Divorce suits have begun among the Mormons.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, January 2, 1868.

The intimate friends of Gen. Grant, who profess to speak knowingly, assert that in the event the Senate sustains Mr. Stanton, the former will immediately retire from the War Department, in obedience to his construction of the tenure of office law.

The Raleigh papers we have received here represent that the meeting held in that city on Saturday evening, was respectable in numbers, and pledged themselves to support Chase for the Presidency.

The President is represented as wishing Gen. Meade to pursue, in the Third District, the same policy adopted by Gen. Hancock, in the Fifth, but the friends of the general do not believe that he will. His command will only be temporary until Gen. Rousseau returns from Alaska.

The famous Tice whisky meters have been rejected by the Congressional sub-committee, and as the only feasible means of preventing the enormous whisky frauds heretofore so general, the whisky tax will no doubt be reduced to fifty cents per gallon, as recommended in Commissioner Rollins' report.

The extent of the existing frauds may be judged by the fact that in July, August and September, 1866, the Treasury realized from distilled spirits $9,181,915; in July, August and September, 1867, only $3,577,599.

The receipts from Internal Revenue have shown a gratifying increase in the past two weeks, having risen from a quarter to a million per day. To-day they exceed two million dollars.

The Treasury Department has called on the Smithsonian Institute for all information in its possession relative to Alaska.

The war between the aspirants for the Radical nomination for President is waxing warm. The Army and Navy Union hold a joint meeting to-morrow night, when an attempt will be made to elicit some expression from the negroes in behalf of their candidate. As some of the leaders of the movement were chief among those who gave that splendid banquet to the Radicals of the Thirty-ninth Congress, and then swindled and ruined the restaurant-keeper who furnished the baquet, it won't amount to anything.

On dit, that Radicals of the Wendell Phillips school, will hold a convention in St. Louis a week before the convention at Chicago and lay down their ultimatum, and if the latter convention does not come to their standard they will run a third candidate.

The reception at the White House yesterday was the most brilliant witnessed for many years. Everybody was there excepting negroes, with whom the President is not so popular as the late lamented.

Reverdy Johnson is said to be busy engaged in the various legal schemes looking to the defeat of the reconstruction laws. He informed some of his Southern friends a few days since that he fully expected a decision from the Supreme Court within a short time, affirming that Virginia is a State. The President no doubt expects this, and the lawyers interested in the case say if such a decision is rendered he will withdraw military supervision from that State by ordering the commanding officers not to interfere except at the request of the civil authorities. It is said that Reverdy Johnson is giving close attention and advice in cases now being prepared, involving the constitutionality of the reconstruction laws in each of the Southern States. Those engaged in these schemes profess perfect confidence in their ability to defeat the Congressional plan.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Night Dispatches.

FROM LOUISVILLE.

LOUISVILLE, January 4.—The river is still rising, with nine feet four inches in the canal by the mark. The weather is clear. Thermometer, 50°.

FROM CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, January 4.—The sternwheeler, Harry Dean, bound from Marietta to this port, exploded one of her boilers near Gallipolis, this morning, and burned to the water's edge. Four persons are supposed to have been killed and nine wounded. The boat and cargo are a total loss.

Gen. Pope arrived here this morning.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, January 4.—The State Auditor and Treasurer have been notified not to pay the public printer or other creditors of the Convention until the members themselves have been paid.

An ordinance was passed in the Convention to day fixing a penalty of twenty-five per cent and an additional penalty of ten per cent per month for default of payment as prescribed in Article XIV of the Constitution. Articles XV, XVI, XVII and XVIII define the qualifications of State Legislators, the length of the terms, place of meeting, etc. The Finance Committee reported their inability to negotiate a loan, and asked to be discharged, but no action was taken in the premises.

Cromwell (colored) offered a resolution to appoint a committee of three to inform Congress that the Convention had been sitting thirty-one days without being able to raise means to defray its expenses; also, that this Convention adjourn until the views of Congress upon this matter be ascertained. This created considerable confusion, and the Convention finally adjourned until 11 a.m. Monday.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, January 4.—In the Convention to-day the following resolutions for inquiry were referred; For limiting the time of hired labor to eight hours. For the settlement of all debts incurred previous to April, 1865, at twenty-five cents on the dollar. For levying a poll tax. Requiring foreigners to reside ten years in the State before voting. For legalizing the birth of children born of parents in slavery, so that they may inherit property. For admitting colored persons to colleges. For selling the Military Institute and devoting the proceeds to educational purposes.

The newspapers were severely denounced for misrepresenting the members. Major Poe, Chief of Police, was before a military commission to-day, charged by Hunnicutt with giving information which was untrue to a correspondent of a New York paper, relative to an alleged incendiary speech by that gentleman.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, January 4.—It is said the immediate cause of Pope's removal was his allowing negroes to vote for the Convention who would not take an oath that they had registered. Gen. Meade, it is believed, will permit a revision of the registration lists so as to cancel some 25,000 names of negro minors, registered contrary to law.

The statement that Gen. Banks is preparing an elaborate report on the rights of American naturalized citizens abroad, is incorrect. The subject as yet has not been before the House Foreign Committee, the present recess of Congress having interfered with its consideration.

Mr. Clingman, of North Carolina, has declined to attend the Democratic banquet at New Orleans on the 8th of January. In his letter he argues against negro suffrage, but says if it is inevitable it ought to be made with a property or intelligence qualification.

It is expected that Hon. Edward Thornton, the new British Minister, will leave England for this country to-day or next Saturday. In diplomatic circles here, the peculiar circumstances under which this gentleman was appointed is regarded as an indication that he is to be clothed with full powers to propose to this Government a counter proposition in regard to the Alabama claims. It is also believed that upon his arrival a speedy solution of the complicated questions in regard to the rights of American citizens abroad will take place in a manner very satisfactory to this Government.

The warrants issued by the Treasury Department during December to meet the requirements of the Government amounted in round numbers to the following sums: Civil, miscellaneous and foreign intercourse, $4,761,000; interest on public debt, $8,300,000; War Department, $12,955,000; Navy Department, $3,620,000; Departments of the Interior, Pensions and Indians, $985,000; total, $30,621,000. This does not include the sum issued in payment of the public debt.

The Committee on Elections of the House will report against allowing both Young and McKee, of Kentucky, a seat. The latter, however, expects a minority report in his favor.

The cotton tax will be the first subject of discussion in the Senate next week.

Assistant Secretary Cooper is expected back from Tennessee next week.

There is great complaint here of the extreme irregularity of the Western mails. The mail which left Cincinnati Saturday last has not yet arrived. Nothing has been received from St. Louis or Chicago since Tuesday last, and nothing from Pittsburg since Thursday morning.

Gen. Grant did not leave for New York last night, as he had arranged. He had a long interview to-day with Sheridan, about leaving for his new command in the West.

FOREIGN.

FLORENCE, January 4.—Minister Manabrea has published letters proving that Baron Ratazzi favored Garibaldi's movement against Rome and assisted the insurgents.

LONDON, January 4.—The Christians who have been imprisoned and persecuted in Nagoski have been released.

The Turkish Envoy at Vienna comes to London to ask the protection of England against the intrigues of Russia.

STEALING HOGS.—A negro named Dan Morton was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by Justice Miller, charged with stealing seven pigs, the property of Mr. E. H. Clayton, who resides about four miles distant from town on the Hernando road. Mr. Clayton very properly shot at the thief, wounding him in the thigh. The accused will be examined before a Justice to-morrow.

The carpets, parlor and chamber furniture are particularly attractive. See advertisement under auction head.

SWINDLING CARTER.—In these troublous times all sorts of commodities will go astray in some direction or other, either through the negligence or rascality of the driver. A case occurred yesterday in the first district. A sable fellow calling himself Robert Gregory, was arrested for swindling. It is charged that instead of delivering a load of wood at the proper place, he had sold the same and appropriated the money to his own use.

MOVING.—For the past two days we have been busily engaged in moving our establishment and, in consequence, have not been enabled to mail our paper to its numerous country readers as we formerly did. This mishap, however, will not occur hereafter. Our arrangements are now complete and we will be able to furnish our readers with the latest news by "mail," "rail," "steamer," and "telegraph."

YOUNG VAGABONDS.—Two members of the once famous mackerel brigade, named Tom Porter and John Brady, were arrested by the police yesterday, charged with garroting a negro on Poplar street. On searching the young rascals, a quantity of stolen property was found in their possession. Commissioner Richards will inquire into the case to-morrow morning.

RATHER MIXED.—It appears to be as hard for Annie Gallagher to keep out of trouble as it is for a hog to keep out of the mud. Not a week passes but what she shows her superannuated beer-jerker countenance in some of the petty courts. She was up yesterday charged with having some jewelry, the property of Sproule McCown. The evidence was sufficient to convict, and she was charged. She was, however, immediately arrested on the charge of stealing her hair braids from F. Lavigne on Christmas day. Justice Hall sent the once handsome Annie up.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Special Session.

President Tulbert called the Board to order last evening. Present, Mayor W. O. Lofland, Aldermen Powers, Glancy, Johnson, Chairman, Wickersham, Amis, Brown, Hill, Holst, O'Donnell, Shaw, Lemon, Smith and Passmore.

Alderman Passmore from Committee on Accounts reported sundry accounts, amounting in the aggregate to $2.

The committee recommended that the account of Thomas Malone be not paid until the claims are attested by the individuals themselves. Also that the Board fix the basis on which the accounts shall be settled. Adopted.

Alderman Amis reported upon the petition of W. B. Greenlaw, relative to the Nicholson pavement in front of his property. The facts is not in the grade.

Alderman Holst presented a petition.

Alderman Wickersham wished it laid over, as it would establish a precedent governing other claims.

Alderman Passmore said the contract was made for cash, and if the gentleman, a member of the Finance Committee, had not the duty, this account would not have come up in this form.

Alderman Glancy spoke in favor of adopting the report.

Alderman Cochran moved to refer the petition to the Leading Committee.

Alderman Passmore thought it strange the amount should be placed to the credit of petitioner on the Comptroller's books. It referred as such, it should go to the Finance Committee.

Alderman Shaw advocated the reference to the Landing Committee. Referred.

Alderman Passmore, from Special Committee, reported adverse to the claim of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad. Adopted.

By same: Adverse to petition of J. P. Foster, City Purveyor. Adopted.

Alderman Smith: Resolution as to claim of F. D. Clapp for services in engineer's department. Referred to Committee on Claims.

By same: Resolution in relation to pumping city well. Referred to Improvement Committee.

By same: Resolution relative to suction pipe, etc. Referred to Committee on Fire Department.

By same: Something relative to carrying out a resolution of the Board concerning the laying down the Nicholson pavement and erection of gas posts in the Seventh ward.

By same: Resolution of thanks of the Board to His Honor the Mayor, W. O. Lofland, for the faithful manner in which he discharged the duties of his office and labored to relieve the city of its embarrassment. Also, of thanks to the officers, and especially of the Fire Department.

Alderman Amis moved to amend by returning thanks to the retiring Aldermen, to be paid in gold.

They then suggested that the time was not opportune for the resolutions, and they were withdrawn.

Alderman Lemon offered a resolution that the accounts of Aldermen should be settled in scrip at fifty cents on the dollar.

Alderman Shaw said this, too, would constitute a precedent. Resolution withdrawn.

Alderman O'Donnell presented requisition of feed, etc., for the Fire Department for January. Granted.

Alderman Johnson off-red two resolutions in relation to sidewalks, which were adopted.

Alderman Passmore asked to know if anything had been done towards preparing to pay the January interest. Also to know if any steps had been taken for the recovery of the $150,000 hypothecated bonds.

Alderman Hill, from the Finance Committee, said that in neither case had the business reached the condition to be reported. So soon as anything conclusive was done, he would make a report.

Sheriff P. M. Winfield reported the official returns of the recent election, from which it appeared that W. H. Fitch, Jr., candidate for Mayor, had not taken and filed the candidate's oath, and consequently no return could be made of the votes he received. Some of the candidates for smaller offices—S. O. Sangster, W. H. Reilly and Wm. Underwood—were in the same category.

Adjourned until Monday morning, January 6th, 1868.

AMUSEMENT.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—There was a meager house to see Shiel's play of the Apostate, and witness the last appearance of Mr. Mayo. His "Pescara" was, like everything else he has performed here, artistic and ably represented. As he remarked in his neat response to the call before the curtain on the occasion of his benefit, he has met with the cordial approbation of many kind friends, if his engagement has not proved a pecuniary success. We are free to say he has frequently accomplished us by his magnificent impersonations, and has never made us feel that he was unequal to any part he represented. There are many of the details of his profession which he will yet have to acquire, but he is capable of mastering them, and we wish him all the success genius for his art and indomitable ambition can achieve. On Monday evening will be performed the sensational play that met with so much favor, entitled Under the Gaslight, and on Tuesday evening Mr. Edwin Booth is announced to certainly appear.

DAN CASTELLO WITH HIS GREAT CIRCUS AND MENAGERIE COMING.—Will perform in this city for six days, commencing Tuesday night, January 7th, on the lot on Union street, between Third and Desoto. The Savannah Herald and News speaks in the following terms of it: "Dan Castello's Circus and Menagerie made its appearance yesterday morning about 10 o'clock in the procession was formed, led by a good looking man in a buggy, driving a fine pair of white horses. Next followed the band wagon, with the performers dressed in red coats and caps, among whom was the jolly and inevitable pair of spectacled gentlemen, who look closely at their manuscript music while they finger their brass instruments. There was also more than the usual number of "infants in armor," on good horses, followed by the nicest little four horse pony team that was ever put in harness. These pretty little fellows drew a wagon, on the back seat of which was a fine looking young lady, apparently about eight or nine years old, who sat up with as much dignity as if she was twice that age. This little girl will appear at each perfo mance, riding as well, or perhaps better than larger ones. Then came a big wagon, overloaded with a variety of flags, on the top of which was a full grown lion, accompanied by his keeper with a heavy whip. Mr. Leo looked round on the street crowd, with an occasional look behind his lips, as if he was reminded of his native forests and jungles, and would like to taste a little African flesh. An occasional hint from his keeper, in the shape of a sharp rap of the whip over his head, kept him quiet, but the admiring crowd held themselves in readiness to make a prompt retreat on the first hostile demonstration. A long procession of wagons closed up the rear, followed by several hundred prospective voters, both white and black. The circus is a great institution, and Dan Castello one of the best managers that ever traveled. He has come to please the people, as is shown by the crowds that nightly attend his exhibitions. At both performances yesterday the spacious tent was crowded to its utmost extent, and the audience appeared looking at and wondering over the exhibition of animals, settled themselves down for an hour of genuine enjoyment on the regular circus performances. Dan Castello was living, or even more than usual polite to-day. Taking more than usual pains to please his Savannah friends. The clowns got off new and original jokes, the tumbling and leaping attracted deserved applause, and the riding was very fine. We expect to see this city. Mlle. Patti nor, the great Parisian artiste, held the large audience spell-bound with her daring feats. Little Minnie, "the Child Wonder," as lovable every one by her riding feats, and all the others performed their parts well. Don's trained horse, "Andy Johnson," has forgotten none of his old tricks, but has learned some new ones, and the irrepressible "Jamboy," is as good a clown as ever. Indeed it ought to be the most successful circus that ever drew the small change from the pockets of the people.

THE ORPHANS' FAIR.—The Fair given by the ladies of the various Catholic churches in the city for the benefit of the orphans, at the Jefferson Block, closed last night. The spacious rooms were crowded to excess, and all present enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. The elegant set of shirt studs and sleeve buttons, the favorite pursuit of the Christian Doctrine Association, was voted to John Duffy. The chairs, for the most popular lady, was given to Mrs. J. J. Canavan. She fully deserved some token of esteem, bigger even than the fair. From the first night she has been most untiring in her efforts to make the fair for the orphans a success. In this connection we may mention Miss Mary Walsh, who by her native modesty and unobtrusive ways contributed much towards the success of the fair. The gold watch for the favorite Railroad Superintendent was voted to W. J. Ross, of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad. The brass drum, elegant in its make and effects, inclosed in a mahogany case, for the most popular police Captain, was given to Capt. Simonds by a small majority. The cane for the ugliest man was, by a most unanimous consent, voted to Capt. James P. Gallagher. On Monday night a grand ball will be given for the benefit of the orphans, at the same rooms. The committee have made the most ample arrangements, and all who attend may be certain of enjoying themselves to their hearts' content. Tickets of admission only one dollar. Who amongst us could not afford to cast his mite for the benefit of the fatherless? We have visited the fair nightly and cheerfully testify to the good work done by Capt. Jim Gallagher and Miss Mary Walsh (not forgetting Willie). They have worked faithfully and should receive their just meed of praise.

ANOTHER CHANGE.—We notice in an advertisement, published in another column, that Dr. Hodg-s has sold out his tidy little drug store, No. 309 Adams street to our popular young friend, Willie P. Gray. The announcement of the fact is enough to cause everybody to flock to Willie for everything in the drug and perfumery line, as the unbounded universe are either his personal friends or the friends of his late lamented father. We wish for him all the spare dimes these hard times.

Correspondence.

SHERMAN HOUSE, INDIANAPOLIS,
January 1, 1868.

NEW YEAR'S DAY IN HOOSIERDOM.

A dull day this has been to me, detained as I am by business in a strange city, where friendships have a specific value in currency. Among the many reminiscences revived by the occurrences of to-day is an ancient promise made to Mr. Ainslie to drop a line occasionally to the APPEAL, and being oppressed for once with a sense of nothing to do, and not being wanted particularly by those around me, who seem to be enjoying a very merry New Years day, I resolve to make good my promise.

REMINISCENCE AND COMPARISON.

Speaking of reminiscences—last New Year's day I was in Memphis, at home, as I always expect to feel when there, and spent the day—oh! so different from the day here—a hearty welcome greeted me at a score of hospitable mansions, and champagne was sipped at as many sideboards. To-day I took a solitary meal at the hotel and exchanged greetings with a penile and rather pasty Hibernian Miss, who waits on the table. This was some consolation, and I bowed in weak submission to the fate which cast me here, as the girl offered me some gravy plate. I only hope that my Memphis friends had as pleasant a day this time as last year.

CALLS.

The custom of passing New Year's calls seems to prevail here as generally as in Memphis. Business was suspended in the afternoon, and the citizens nearly all kept open house. It is said that there is less demonstration here to-day than usual for the occasion. This is owing to the dullness of the times, for while business is not depressed or destroyed, as in the South, there is a falling off in all branches of business, which is felt sensibly.

THE WEATHER.

A few words about the weather are always appropriate. If the weather is changeable, it is a matter of remark; and if monotonous, the fact calls forth animated conversations when the most possible subjects have failed. Well, the weather north of the Ohio has failed to come to time, while a snow storm fresh from the ice fields of Alaska, swept over Middle and West Tennessee, we had only a shower of rain up here. Last night, however, a slight snow fell, and is perhaps an inch deep. This is an invasion of the usual order of nature, and Col. Billy Dardis, the weather prophet of Memphis, should be called on for an explanation of this strange freak in his department. He can no doubt give a satisfactory, if not a scientific, solution of the phenomenon.

AMUSEMENTS.

The principal amusement here now is Mrs. Lander trying to play Elizabeth, and being proclaimed the successful rival of Mme. Ristori. Miss Jennie Gourley, formerly a favorite of the New Memphis Theater, is one of the Lander troupe, and I predict Lady Howard with feeling and a careful appreciation of the character. But it Mrs. Lander is the successful rival of Ristori, it is in not speaking so as to be understood. A careful listener will make out about half she says, but if the audiences were furnished the libretto they could keep up with her as well as with Ristori. Mrs. Lander plays a character; Ristori lets it. That is the difference which must strike every dispassionate beholder. Ristori may speak in Italian—they say she does, and I cannot dispute it—but if she spoke Dutch, or Chinese, or the veriest patois, or no language at all, she would still be to Mrs. Lander as a work of tragedy to a lobrador stock actress.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

On the eighth of this month the Constitutional Democrats of this State are to meet in convention at this city to nominate candidates for State officers, and make arrangements for the critically important campaign of the ensuing year. A large attendance of the best men in the State is expected, and earnest work is looked for, to be followed by vigorous action. The Radicals of this State stand aghast at the prospects before them, while the Democrats are hopeful, determined and jubilant. The party in power sees its doom written in the damnation staring them in the face, and confusion in the ranks is the result. Some would fight it out on the confiscation "death to traitors" line; others would like to whimper of retrenchment and make any sort of concessions that would keep them in power, nay, would do anything to hold their places—would sell their souls if that had not been done long ago; would pardon every rebel, from Jefferson Davis down to the last descendants of Thad. Stevens, and go back on their glorious doctrine of universal equality; yes, even renounce the devil himself if that would procrastinate their time of office. The representative Radicals, when in power, are the most reckless, tyrannical and exacting rulers on earth, but kick their pedestal from beneath them and they become base fawners and pitiable supplicants. The genuine Union soldiers are not of the party. Such thieves as Butler, liars as Pope, and tyrants as Ord, are in the party, where they ought to be, as leaders, but such mimic Gens. Sherman, Thomas, Hancock, McClellan and Meade, if not recognized as Democrats, at least keep aloof from blood thirsty fanatics who have ruled and ruined the country so successfully for the last six years. I have a curiosity to see a Northern Democratic gathering, and I learn how they really feel toward the South. If I remain here until the 8th, which seems probable, I will attend the Convention and give your readers the result of my observations.

PERSONAL.

I find but few persons who hail from the South, or were ever favorably known there. One exception, however is worthy of mention in this connection. I allude to a steamboatman who was formerly well known on the lower Mississippi, and also on the upper, Capt. Wm. J. Gates, originally from St. Louis. He is prominently connected with the Sherman House here, and his friends South may rest assured he is doing a first rate business. This house (no puff) is one of the best I have stopped at, and charges seem very cheap to one from the South.

This is the first communication that your correspondent has written for the APPEAL since the memorable 22d of July, 1864. He is hoping to again greet his Southern friends, after such a long, eventful silence, and wishes them a greater measure of prosperity in the year 1868, than an All-wise Providence has accorded during the interval.

HARVEY.

THE SABBATH.—There is a softness in this Sabbath morn that reminds one of the most agreeable days of spring. The air is bland and the sunshine genial. The bells ring out in solemn tones, summoning the world to prayer, and leading the mind to the contemplation of the mercies and beneficence of the Creator. For these purposes the day of rest was devised, and it is meet that a portion of it at least should be consecrated by thankfulness for divine gifts, and the acknowledgement of man's needs without the interposition of divine grace. There is a quietude in a Sabbath morn that seems to spring from nature—as if the very day were singled from the calendar for peace and content. The bells that we are wont to pass unheeded on other days of the week sound out now in the roundest fullest tones of solemnity, and awaken even in the saddest heart, the inspiration of hope founded on the faith that was taught by the blessed Redeemer. The recurrence of this day, set apart for religious duties, impresses those most given to worldly cares, with the propriety of paying the homage of worship in the humility which becomes the christian and the sinner. Ignorance, and time would elapse before the power of government would become a feeble straw and civilization take backward steps toward barbarism? Without the duties of religion—that restraining influence over the grosser passions of mankind—the virtues would cease to shine, and chaos would soon come again.

EMMONS & SON, No 10 Jefferson street, and 265 Gayoso street, have received Frank Leslie, Police News, Police Gazette, New York Weekly, Chimney Corner, Literary Album New York Clipper Sporting Times, Banner of Light, New York Ledger, Boston Pilot, Irish People, Irish American, Sporting Times, Clipper, New York Ledger, Chimney Corner, Literary Album, Banner of Light, Lee's Newspaper, Yankee Notions, Budget of Fun, Phunny Phellow, Freeman's Journal, German Leslie, all of the latest magazines, periodicals, stationery, etc., etc. For your Sunday reading call on Joe.

A RUNAWAY.—A pair of horses attached to a buggy, ran away near the Charleston depot, injuring the driver, Mr. Wolf, and his friend very badly. The buggy was rendered unfit for immediate use.

POLICE CHANGES.—Capt. S. S. Garrett has resigned his position as captain of the Metropolitan police in the First District. Capt. Simonds has been put in charge. Sergeant S. Perry has been promoted to the captaincy of the Second District. Worthy officers have been put in the right place.

A CANING.—Our young friends John Durff and James Dowling, of the Post-office Department, were presented with a cane each. The latter carriers were the donors, and Mr. W. G. Taylor made the presentation speech.

THE following telegrams remain uncalled for in the office: P. D. Beecher, A. Promdfit, Matthews & Alexander, J. E. Otter, J. B. Dowdy, J. T. Pettit & Co., Kennedy, Williams & Russell, E. J. Wendel, E. J. Jenkins, James Solberg, Gates, Wood & Co., DeSoto Bank, Miss Laura S. Jones, and Frank Mayo.

A QUARREL.—Messrs. T. L. Martin and P. P. Hughes had a slight argument on Front Row yesterday. Words ran high and threats were made of a very serious character, when the police interfered and arrested Martin, who put up a forfeit and passed on his way.

PERSONAL.—Major W. R. Rhea, of the Avalanche, returned yesterday from Louisville, after an absence of several days. He, with the rest of us, is full of joy at our recent municipal election.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL,
Memphis, January 4, 1868.

This has been a busy day at our banking houses. We are assured that nearly all the paper due was met. The result was a more favorable than could have been anticipated. We could learn of no prominent house going to protest. Exchange is abundant and buying rates remain unchanged. New York Sight is taken at ¼o discount, and on other points at ⅜o discount. New Orleans Sight is offered freely, and taken at ½ to ⅝o discount. $1000 on that point, fifteen days, was taken to-day at 1¼o discount. Checking on all points outside of New Orleans at par, and on that city at a premium of ⅛ to ¼o.

Gold opened in New York to-day at 134c. There was a fair counter demand from the country, which fully covered the offerings. Dealers are not disposed to follow the New York quotations closely. The large amounts paid out by the Government since the 1st as interest on bonds must naturally depress the market. The contrary is the fact, however, and the upward movement is not easily accounted for.

City Scrip is firm. Were currency not so close the speculative demand would be large. It has advanced about 33 on the dollar in the last two days. Dealers are unable to buy at less than 94@95c. Selling at 96@97c.

County Warrants are dull. Brokers are not anxious to buy at 6c, which is the nominal rate. Selling at 68@70c.

A like semi-annual dividend of ten per cent. is declared by the directors of the People's Savings Institution, payable at once.

The Third National Bank of St. Louis, by its Board of Directors, declares a dividend, semi-annual, of five per cent., tax free, payable on and after the 10th inst.

The Exchange Bank of St. Louis shares a semi-annual dividend of three per cent., exempt from Government tax, payable on demand.

The Butchers' and Drovers' Bank of St. Louis shares a like semi-annual dividend of five per cent., payable on and after the 5th inst.

The National Bank of the State of Missouri, in St. Louis, awards to its stockholders a five per cent. dividend, also tax free, and payable on and after the 10th inst.

The Citizens' Insurance Company of Missouri, St. Louis, by its Directors, has declared a semi-annual dividend of five per cent. on the capital stock, payable on and after the 6th inst.

A semi-annual cash dividend of five per cent is declared by the directory of the Franklin Insurance Company, on the capital stock of $200,000.

The Commercial Bank of St. Louis, at the meeting of its Board of Directors on the 31st ult., declared, on 1 s paid up stock of $1,0.0, a semi-annual dividend of five per cent., to be placed to the credit of stock.

The Liverpool cotton market at the opening to-day was firm with uplands 7¾d, Orleans 7¾d. Sales for the day 15,000 bales. The New York market was very firm at the opening, and buyers asking higher rates. Middling Orleans 17½c. At the close that market was dull and entirely nominal, with prices lower. Mid. dling 16¾@16⅞c, Orleans 17½c. Sales for the day 1,00 bales. Receipts for the week 16,9.0 bales. Sales for the week 56,000 bales. Exports 12,0.0 bales. Stock on hand 50 000 bales. Our market was active at the opening and continued so until about noon when private dispatches anticipated the decline reported later in the day. During the one or two instances 13½c was paid for bright styles of Middling, but the prevailing rate was 13c. Late in the day our market was dull and nominal with no transactions upon which to base quotations. Some factors were less weak as they were firm in the morning, and rushed around with sample offering at fully ½c below figures they had refused but a few hours before. The stock is very much reduced:

KAVANAGH & DECKER'S

BILLIARD TABLES

THE most reliable Cushion used on Billiard Tables is the

Cat-Gut Cushion,

Manufactured by KAVANAUGH & DECKER, and patented December 18, 1866. (See Scientific American, Vol. 16, No 11.)

It is the only Cushion that possesses all the qualities essential to a Perfect Cushion. It is the most reliable and uniform Cushion ever offered to the billiard-playing public, as is abundantly proven by the great demand for it since its introduction. The peculiarity which distinguishes the Cat-Gut Cushion and renders it superior to all others, is the different degree of cat-gut which overlies the face and edge of the rubber and running the full length of the Cushion, thereby obviating the ball from holding into the rubber and jumping from the tables The adhesion of the ball to the cloth also much to the elasticity of the Cushion.

The Cat-cut Cushion has already been applied to over 300 tables, and are in constant use. It can be applied to tables of any make, for $75 per set.

Cavanagh & Decker's Factory, at the corner of Centre and Canal streets, N. Y., is the most complete in the United States. The machinery is of the most improved character, the lumber drying room is capable of the United States, the material used the best that can be purchased, and the workmen thoroughly skilled.

Billiard Cloth, Balls, Cues and Trimmings, all of the best make, constantly on hand.

Kavanagh & Decker have no other agents in this country for Kay's Cue Cement adjudged by competent judges to be the best cement ever used.

Full size Tables cut down for $100.

To CONSUMPTIVES

It is authentically stated that one-fifth of the inhabitants of this country and Europe die of Consumption, at our solicitation, have rested ough y studied, and its nature less understood; there is no disease upon which such a great diversity of opinion, and no disease which has more completely baffled all medical skill and remedial agencies.

Some of the prominent symptoms are Cough, Expectoration, Shortness of Breath, Pain about the Chest, Side, darting pains in the Sides and Back Emaciation, and general Negative condition of the whole system.

Persons suffering with this dread disease, or any of its concomitants, should lose no time in procuring Thomas' Compound Syrup Hemp, in order that they may stay its ravages, and be restored to health. The

MEMPHIS APPEAL

BY TELEGRAPH.

Noon Dispatches.

NEW YORK, January 4.—The Herald's Washington special says the House Committee on Foreign Affairs will bring in an appropriation bill for the payment of the purchase money for Alaska.

Several months will elapse before the case of St. Thomas and St. John will be brought to a final test.

At a meeting of the Grand Army of the republic, in Washington, resolutions were passed nominating Gen. Grant for President, ignoring political organizations, and calling a national convention of soldiers and sailors.

The President is gathering all the information in possession of the War Department, relative to destitution in the South, and has called upon Gen. Grant for a report on the subject. Gen. Howard will to-day transmit reports from different district commanders South on the subject.

Hancock and Ord advise the repairing of the Mississippi levees. Canby favors relief to planters by funds and issuing provisions, take liens on the crops for security.

Butler argues in favor of the necessity of a bill for the issuance of a Government tax, as an offset to contraction; that two per cent per month be paid to the West, and six per cent per month to the South; also that the general forbearance of business in the North is among the inducements offered by the Government for the investment of capital.

An Albany dispatch states that at a meeting of Peter Cagger and other prominent Democrats, an effort was made to induce Mr. Seymour to allow his name to go before the National Convention, as a candidate for the Presidency. It is believed he will accede to their request.

Christmas in Alabama—The Negro Demonstrations at Montgomery.

From the Montgomery Mail.)

Thousands of negroes have congregated in the city during the last few days. On Christmas day they appeared to have the town "in a sling," and, aided by two or three carpet-baggers, and under the sanction and countenance of General Swayne, who was sent here as a military dictator, and not for the purpose of framing the Radical machine, had a lively Christmas of it. Early in the morning, a drum and fife paraded the streets, followed by hundreds of negroes, who were yelling and cursing and threatening to run over anything with which they came in contact. Later in the day, the negro military company, with flashy uniform flags, and armed with Government muskets, paraded all the streets, and were followed by scores hundreds of negroes. The City Council passed an ordinance prohibiting little white boys from enjoying the innocent Christmas pastime of firing crackers in the streets, but the negro military company marched up to Swayne's headquarters, on Market street, and saluted him by firing off their muskets by platoons, to the delight of Swayne, but to the terror of the women and children of the negroes then marched off, still firing at intervals, and formed the nucleus of a Radical political assemblage, within a short distance of headquarters. At this meeting several incendiary speeches were delivered. A negro speaker said: "The Radicals could whip the Conservatives at the ballot-box or with the musket." Babour, of the Bureau, Secretary of Swayne's late meeting, he reported, would have said, in his speech to the negroes: "That he would soon have in this State an armed militia, which would keep the white men in subjection to Radical authority." Here the excitement and mean whisky got so high that a fight ensued, in which Babour flourished a loaded revolver over his head, saying, "Come on, rebels." A New York merchant, viewing what was going on, exclaimed: "Would to God the white people of the North could witness what I have in Montgomery to-day."

The above are only a few of the incidents of the day, which we publish in order to show what we are coming to under the bayonet and negro rule of such radicals as Pope and Swayne.
